

Feel free to share this no-cost virtual training with your law enforcement networks.

Registration is open for an NW3C Virtual Training Course:

Responding to Transnational Elder Fraud –
A Victim-Centered Approach for Law Enforcement

Thursday, October 27, 2022, 9 am – 5 pm ET & Thursday, November 17, 2022, 9 am – 5 pm ET

Sponsored by the Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime Managed by the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C)

About this training: This course provides students with information they need to collaboratively assist older victims of fraud perpetrated overseas by phone or Internet. The course offers background information on transnational fraud and tips for identifying and interviewing older victims through a trauma-informed lens. It highlights resources that should be provided to victims, along with resources for law enforcement, including agencies that can offer multidisciplinary support to investigations.

LINK TO REGISTER:

- October 27: <https://www.nw3c.org/classroom-training/classroom-course-detail/24676>
- November 17: <https://www.nw3c.org/classroom-training/classroom-course-detail/24677>

NW3C also offers a self-paced online version of this course, available here:

<https://www.nw3c.org/online-training/online-course-detail/766>

For questions:

Laura Cook
Program Manager, NW3C, Inc.
Phone: (304) 368-2368
lcook@nw3c.org
www.nw3c.org

This project was developed by the National White Collar Crime Center under grant # 2020-V3-GX-K006, awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this presentation are those of the contributors and do not necessarily represent the official position of the U.S. Department of Justice.