	Please note: This Victim Impact Form is intended for individuals who invested with Sterling Currency Group (which also did business as Dinar Banker and GID Associates).
	re space to answer the follow d simply attach these sheets o
1. How much money did you invest with Sterling Currency Group? Please be sure to specific: (a) the amount of money you spent at Sterling, (b) what currencies you purchased, (c) whether you ever received those foreign currencies, and (d) whether or not you participated in Sterling's layaway program. If you wish to submit documentation we request that you also detail those expenses in the below-listed summary chart. Please list additional columns and rows as is necessary.
Date of Purchase	Amount of Money Paid	Amount and Type of Foreign Currency Received	Amount and Type of Foreign Currency Purchased but not yet Received
TOTAL.
TOTAL:

Victim Name:

Criminal No: 1:18-CR-67-SCJ-CMS

USAO Number: 2014R00956

U.S. v. Tyson Rhame, James Shaw, and Frank Bell

2.	Why did you invest in the Iraqi dinar (or other foreign currency)?
	Please specific whether you invested in hopes of a "revaluation" or RV. Please tell us whether anyone at Sterling or elsewhere (such as a conference call, blog, or internet char room), talked about the possibility of a revaluation. If so, please indicate what role that had on your investment decision.

3. Why did you choose Sterling Currency Group?

Please provide information as to why you chose Sterling to make your investment.

4.	Were you familiar with Sterling's plans to open up exchanges at airports after a revaluation?

Please provide information as to whether or not you intended to use Sterling's post-revaluation airport exchanges. Please also indicate how these airport exchange plans made you feel about your investment decision.

5. Did this investment cause you or your family a substantial financial hardship? If so, please explain how it has impacted you or your family.

This would include issues such as becoming insolvent, suffering substantial loss of a retirement or other savings or investment funds, or making substantial changes to your employment, such as postponing retirement.

6.	Did you encourage anyone else (such as family members or friends) to invest? If so, please indicate how much money those individuals invested as well.
7.	What are your thoughts on sentencing of the defendant?
8.	Are you willing to be contacted by the investigating agencies for follow-up questions? If so, please provide a telephone number where you can be reached.