18 U.S.C. § 1344(2)

18 U.S.C. § 1957

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

At all times relevant to this Indictment, on or about the dates stated below:

The Defendant

1. The defendant, PAUL J. HARRIS, was a resident of Wheeling, West Virginia, and was a lawyer admitted to the West Virginia State Bar in 1987.

2. All lawyers who practiced in the State of West Virginia were required to comply with the West Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct.

3. Rule 1.15 of the West Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct required PAUL J. HARRIS to hold property of clients that was in his possession in connection with a representation separate from his own property. Specifically, the rule required PAUL J. HARRIS to keep funds, including funds to pay his legal fees and funds to be used by him to pay expenses of the representation, in a separate account designated as a client's trust account, which was an Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts ("IOLTA account"). The rule permitted PAUL J. HARRIS to withdraw legal fees and expenses paid in advance but only as the fees were earned or expenses were incurred. The rule permitted PAUL J. HARRIS to deposit his own funds in his IOLTA account for the sole purpose of paying bank service charges on that account, but only in an amount necessary for that purpose.

4. PAUL J. HARRIS had an IOLTA account, a law firm operating account, and several personal accounts at Main Street Bank, a financial institution as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20.

The Clients

5. CLIENT-1 was a client for whom PAUL J. HARRIS agreed to hold in trust approximately $600,000 that CLIENT-1 had inherited and approximately $100,000 of proceeds from the sale of real property that CLIENT-1 had inherited. In or about at least April 2014, CLIENT-1 began to transfer the inheritance funds to PAUL J. HARRIS because PAUL J. HARRIS told CLIENT-1 that CLIENT-1 had potential civil liability arising from an April 2014 vehicle accident involving CLIENT-1's adult son that resulted in a fatality. PAUL J. HARRIS deposited these funds in his IOLTA account. In or about at least January 2019, CLIENT-1 began to request the inheritance funds from PAUL J. HARRIS so that CLIENT-1 could move the funds to an account to be handled by a financial advisor. From in or about August 2019 to in or about April 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS gave CLIENT-1 checks totaling $370,000.

6. CLIENT-2 was a client PAUL J. HARRIS agreed to represent in a federal criminal tax investigation. CLIENT-2 retained PAUL J. HARRIS with an advance payment of fees of $50,000, which was deposited in the IOLTA account of PAUL J. HARRIS in or about October and November 2017.

7. CLIENT-3 was a client for whom PAUL J. HARRIS agreed to handle the first-party and third-party claims arising from a mine subsidence dispute, on a contingency fee basis, as well as other family matters, including matters relating to the federal income tax delinquencies of CLIENT-3, on a retainer basis. In or about November 2020, as a retainer for the other family matters, CLIENT-3 transferred $300,000 to the IOLTA account of PAUL J. HARRIS. In or about March 2021, as part of a settlement of the first-party claim, an insurance company issued a check of $200,000, made payable to PAUL J. HARRIS and CLIENT-3, which was deposited in the IOLTA account of PAUL J. HARRIS. In or about April 2021, CLIENT-3 transferred over $600,000 of real property sale proceeds to the IOLTA account of PAUL J. HARRIS to be used for the exclusive purpose of curing (1) state and federal income tax delinquencies of CLIENT-3 and CLIENT-3's family, and (2) child support delinquencies of CLIENT-3's son.

8. CLIENT-4 was a member of a class of plaintiffs that PAUL J. HARRIS agreed to represent in a civil action filed in or about April 2021. In or about November 2022, as part of a settlement, the defendant in the civil action issued checks payable to the plaintiffs totaling $3,500,000, all of which were deposited in the IOLTA account of PAUL J. HARRIS, including a check of $1,000,000 made payable to CLIENT-4.

COUNTS ONE THROUGH TWENTY-NINE

(Mail Fraud and Wire Fraud)

1. The General Allegations of this Indictment are re-alleged and fully incorporated herein by reference.

THE SCHEME

2. Beginning in or about at least April 2014, and continuing to on or about June 3, 2025, in Ohio County, in the Northern District of West Virginia, and elsewhere, the defendant, PAUL J. HARRIS, devised and intended to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and obtain money from clients by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, and for the purpose of executing the scheme and artifice to defraud and obtain money from his clients, did knowingly deliver and cause to be delivered by mail according to the direction thereon, a matter or thing, and did knowingly transmit and cause to be transmitted in interstate and foreign commerce, by means of wire communications, certain signs and signals.

3. The scheme involved the following manner and means, among others.

4. PAUL J. HARRIS would cause clients to send to him or to entrust him with substantial amounts of money, including advance payments of fees, inheritance funds, settlement funds, and property sale proceeds.

5. PAUL J. HARRIS would commingle client funds with non-client funds by moving client funds from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account, where he converted the client funds to his own use to fund payments that were unrelated to the representation of the client.

6. PAUL J. HARRIS would use some of the commingled funds of one client to make payments that he owed to another client to conceal his misuse of client funds and to lull and forestall action by his clients and others.

7. PAUL J. HARRIS would make false and misleading statements to his clients and to others and would make statements to his clients and to others that omitted materially important information about his use of client funds, to conceal his misuse of client funds and to lull and forestall action by his clients and others.

8. The scheme involved the following acts, among others, which were committed and caused to be committed in the Northern District of West Virginia and elsewhere.

CLIENT-1:

9. From on or about April 29, 2014, to on or about July 11, 2014, PAUL J. HARRIS deposited and caused to be deposited in his IOLTA account checks totaling $575,000 from CLIENT-1.

10. By at least in or about August 2014, PAUL J. HARRIS had commingled and converted to his own use the client funds of CLIENT-1.

11. In or about March 2019, PAUL J. HARRIS had a meeting with CLIENT-1, during which he omitted that he had expended the client funds of CLIENT-1.

12. On or about August 31, 2019, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used funds not comprised of the client funds of CLIENT-1 to fund a check of $100,000, written on his law firm operating account, made payable to CLIENT-1.

13. On or about September 14, 2019, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used funds not comprised of the client funds of CLIENT-1 to fund a check of $100,000, written on his law firm operating account, made payable to CLIENT-1.

CLIENT-2:

14. On or about October 20, 2017, PAUL J. HARRIS deposited and caused to be deposited in his IOLTA account a check of $25,000 from CLIENT-2.

15. From on or about October 20, 2017, to on or about October 31, 2017, PAUL J. HARRIS transferred and caused to be transferred approximately $20,000 of CLIENT-2's money from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account.

16. By at least on or about November 2, 2017, PAUL J. HARRIS had expended and caused to be expended CLIENT-2's money from his law firm operating account, including to fund payments not related to his representation of CLIENT-2.

17. In or about mid-November 2017, PAUL J. HARRIS deposited and caused to be deposited in his IOLTA account a check of $25,000 from CLIENT-2.

18. On or about February 22, 2020, PAUL J. HARRIS provided and caused to be provided to CLIENT-2 an itemized billing statement, which purported to account for the use of the advance payment of fees of $50,000 by falsely and fraudulently claiming over $44,000 in fees and expenses, including $23,000 for legal research.

19. On or about December 28, 2020, PAUL J. HARRIS produced and caused to be produced to an attorney of CLIENT-2 a purported copy of the file of CLIENT-2, which included 131 pages of proposed jury instructions.

20. On or about February 21, 2024, before a hearing panel subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board of the State of West Virginia, PAUL J. HARRIS gave false and misleading testimony that he only transferred CLIENT-2's funds from his IOLTA account as part of earning his legal fee for the criminal defense of CLIENT-2.

CLIENT-3:

Retainer of $300,000

21. On or about November 30, 2020, PAUL J. HARRIS caused CLIENT-3 to wire $300,000 to his IOLTA account.

22. From on or about November 30, 2020, to on or about December 15, 2020, PAUL J. HARRIS transferred and caused to be transferred more than approximately $150,000 of CLIENT-3's money from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account.

23. On or about December 11, 2020, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used CLIENT-3's money to fund a check of $20,000, written on his law firm operating account, made payable to CLIENT-1.

First-Party Mine Subsidence Claim Settlement Proceeds of $200,000

24. On or about March 22, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS deposited and caused to be deposited in his IOLTA account a $200,000 check from an insurance company, made payable to PAUL J. HARRIS and CLIENT-3, as part of the settlement of the first-party claim.

25. From on or about March 23, 2021, to on or about March 28, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS transferred and caused to be transferred approximately $120,000 of the $200,000 of insurance proceeds from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account, at least part of which proceeds were due to be paid to CLIENT-3.

26. On or about March 26, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used money that was due to CLIENT-3 from the insurance proceeds to fund a check of $50,000, written on his law firm operating account, made payable to CLIENT-1.

Real Property Sale Proceeds of More Than $600,000

27. On or about April 14, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS caused CLIENT-3 to wire $611,581.04 to his IOLTA account, representing the proceeds of the sale of real properties of CLIENT-3, which CLIENT-3 intended to be used to pay state and federal income tax delinquencies of CLIENT-3 and CLIENT-3's family, and child support delinquencies of CLIENT-3's son.

28. From on or about April 14, 2021, to on or about May 25, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS transferred and caused to be transferred over $500,000 of CLIENT-3's property sale proceeds from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account.

29. On or about April 15, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used CLIENT-3's money to fund a check of $100,000, written on his law firm operating account, made payable to CLIENT-1.

30. From on or about April 19, 2021, to on or about April 28, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used CLIENT-3's money to fund transfers totaling $70,000 from his law firm operating account to a brokerage account in his name, which he had opened on or about March 29, 2021.

31. From on or about April 20, 2021, to on or about May 27, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused be used CLIENT-3's money to fund transfers totaling $75,000 from his law firm operating account to a digital currency exchange account in his name, which he had opened on or about April 18, 2021.

32. On or about April 26, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used CLIENT-3's money to fund a payment of approximately $53,000 from his law firm operating account to the account for the loan on the property comprising his law firm.

33. On or about June 16, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS sent and caused to be sent an email to CLIENT-3's son, which attached a letter representing that PAUL J. HARRIS would soon be filing the CLIENT-3 family's delinquent tax returns, and which omitted that he had already converted to his own use hundreds of thousands of dollars that CLIENT-3 had intended him to use to pay the outstanding tax liabilities.

34. On or about July 19, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS sent and caused to be sent an email to CLIENT-3's son, which represented that PAUL J. HARRIS was handling CLIENT-3's son's child support delinquencies, and which omitted that he had already converted to his own use hundreds of thousands of dollars, part of which CLIENT-3 had intended to be used to pay the outstanding child support liabilities.

35. On or about July 22, 2021, PAUL J. HARRIS sent and caused to be sent an email to CLIENT-3's son, which represented that he intended to provide an accounting of his use of CLIENT-3's money at a meeting the next day, and which omitted that he had already converted to his own use nearly all of CLIENT-3's money.

36. On or about January 31, 2022, PAUL J. HARRIS sent and caused to be sent a text message to CLIENT-3's son, which represented that the delinquent tax returns had been completed and that the penalties and interest were being calculated, and which omitted that he had already fully converted to his own use the money that CLIENT-3 had intended to be used to pay the outstanding tax liabilities.

37. On or about May 18, 2022, PAUL J. HARRIS mailed and caused to be mailed a letter to CLIENT-3, which omitted that he had converted all of CLIENT-3's money to his personal use rather than using the funds to pay the outstanding tax liabilities.

38. On or about May 23, 2022, PAUL J. HARRIS represented falsely in a court filing that the insurance proceeds associated with CLIENT-3's first-party claim had been used to pay the outstanding tax liabilities.

39. In or about August 2022, PAUL J. HARRIS produced and caused to be produced to CLIENT-3's son a copy of CLIENT-3's file, which included copies of the CLIENT-3 family state and federal income tax returns and copies of payment checks dated between March 29, 2022, and April 30, 2022, but he omitted that these checks had not been sent to the taxing authorities for payment.

40. On or about November 11, 2022, PAUL J. HARRIS represented falsely at a mediation that he had used CLIENT-3's money to pay the outstanding tax liabilities.

41. On or about June 6, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS represented falsely in a court filing that CLIENT-3 had been provided with records of federal tax payments, but which omitted that the payments had not been made at the time the records were provided to CLIENT-3 and had only since been made in or around January 2023 and March 2023 with the funds of other clients.

42. On or about August 14, 2023, in a filing responding to the West Virginia Office of Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel's statement of charges against him regarding CLIENT-3, PAUL J. HARRIS represented falsely that he used the $300,000, received from CLIENT-3 on or about November 30, 2020, to pay the outstanding tax liabilities.

43. On or about August 14, 2023, in a filing responding to the West Virginia Office of Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel's statement of charges against him regarding CLIENT-3, PAUL J. HARRIS represented falsely that he used the balance of his IOLTA account on March 31, 2021, to pay the outstanding tax liabilities.

44. On or about February 21, 2024, before a hearing panel subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board of the State of West Virginia, PAUL J. HARRIS gave false and misleading testimony that he only transferred the funds he received from CLIENT-3 in November 2020 from his IOLTA account as part of earning his legal fee.

45. On or about February 21, 2024, before a hearing panel subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board of the State of West Virginia, PAUL J. HARRIS gave false and misleading testimony that he kept CLIENT-3's part of the first-party claim proceeds in his IOLTA account, rather than distributing those funds to CLIENT-3, so that he could apply the funds to payments of CLIENT-3's outstanding tax liabilities or to his legal fee for the potential criminal defense of CLIENT-3.

46. On or about February 21, 2024, before a hearing panel subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board of the State of West Virginia, PAUL J. HARRIS gave false and misleading testimony that he mailed and caused to be mailed the payment checks for the outstanding federal income taxes, penalties, and interest of CLIENT-3 and family, to the Internal Revenue Service on or about the dates the checks were drafted in or about March 2022 and April 2022.

47. On or about February 21, 2024, before a hearing panel subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board of the State of West Virginia, PAUL J. HARRIS gave false and misleading testimony that he did not submit any payments to the Internal Revenue Service on behalf of CLIENT-3 and family in 2023.

CLIENT-4:

48. On or about November 29, 2022, PAUL J. HARRIS deposited and caused to be deposited in his IOLTA account seven checks, totaling $2,750,000, from the civil action defendant, each made payable to one of the class action plaintiffs, including a $1,000,000 check, made payable to CLIENT-4.

49. From on or about November 30, 2022, to on or about January 27, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS transferred and caused to be transferred approximately $1,170,000 of the class action settlement funds from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account, which had a negative balance prior to receipt of the first transfer of these funds.

50. From on or about January 23, 2023, to on or about January 27, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used the class action settlement funds to fund six checks, dated March 29, 2022, totaling approximately $169,000, written on his law firm operating account, made payable to the U.S. Treasury, to pay outstanding federal income taxes and, purportedly, penalties and interest for the daughter of CLIENT-3 for tax years 2015 through 2020.

51. From on or about January 30, 2023, to on or about March 21, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS transferred and caused to be transferred approximately $600,000 of the class action settlement funds from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account, which had a balance of approximately $36,000 prior to the first transfer of these funds.

52. From on or about March 7, 2023, to on or about March 28, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS used and caused to be used the class action settlement funds to fund eight checks, dated April 9, 2022, and April 16, 2022, totaling approximately $500,000, written on his law firm operating account, made payable to the U.S. Treasury, to pay outstanding federal income taxes and, purportedly, penalties and interest for CLIENT-3 for tax years 2010 through 2018.

53. On or about August 16, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS represented to CLIENT-4 that he was working on negotiating a settlement of a subrogation claim from a health insurance company on CLIENT-4's class action settlement proceeds, but he omitted that he no longer had all the class action settlement proceeds due to CLIENT-4.

54. On or about October 24, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS represented to CLIENT-4 that he was continuing to work on the subrogation claim from a health insurance company on CLIENT-4's class action settlement proceeds, but he omitted that he no longer had all the class action settlement proceeds due to CLIENT-4.

55. On or about December 12, 2023, PAUL J. HARRIS provided and caused to be provided to CLIENT-4 a document, which falsely and fraudulently claimed that his law firm incurred expenses of over $350,000 in representing CLIENT-4 and the other plaintiffs in the class action litigation.

56. On or about March 15, 2025, PAUL J. HARRIS represented to CLIENT-4 that a person listed on the expense document provided to CLIENT-4 on or about December 12, 2023, was an expert, but he omitted that the true expense for this item was $5,000, not the $26,000 figure on the expense document.

57. On or about April 11, 2025, PAUL J. HARRIS falsely and fraudulently represented to the guardian ad litem for CLIENT-4's minor son that his law firm had incurred $26,000 of expenses for a specified expert.

58. On or about May 22, 2025, in response to a court order directing him to deposit the remaining settlement proceeds of CLIENT-4 with a general receiver, PAUL J. HARRIS deposited and caused to be deposited approximately $350,000, which was not comprised of CLIENT-4's class action settlement proceeds.

COUNTS THIRTY THROUGH THIRTY-FOUR

(Bank Fraud)

1. The General Allegations and Counts One through Twenty-Nine of this Indictment are re-alleged and fully incorporated herein by reference.

THE SCHEME

2. Beginning in or about at least April 2014, and continuing to on or about June 3, 2025, in Ohio County, in the Northern District of West Virginia, and elsewhere, the defendant, PAUL J. HARRIS, devised and intended to devise a scheme and artifice to obtain money, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, a financial institution, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, through which the defendant intended to obtain hundreds of thousands of dollars of client funds under the custody and control of Main Street Bank.

3. The scheme involved the following manner and means, among others.

4. PAUL J. HARRIS would cause clients to send to him or to entrust him with substantial amounts of money, including advance payments of fees, inheritance funds, settlement funds, and property sale proceeds.

5. PAUL J. HARRIS would commingle client funds with non-client funds by moving client funds from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account, while materially omitting from Main Street Bank that he did not have lawful authority to move the client funds from his IOLTA account to his law firm operating account, both accounts held by Main Street Bank.

6. PAUL J. HARRIS would convert the client funds to his own use by conducting transactions on his law firm operating account that were unrelated to the representation of the client whose funds were used to fund the transactions, while materially omitting from Main Street Bank that he did not have lawful authority to use client funds for these transactions.

7. PAUL J. HARRIS would make payments to clients using commingled funds purporting to be funds belonging to those clients for the purpose of concealing his past misuse of those client funds and ensuring his continued ability to receive, commingle, and convert to his own use other client funds.

8. PAUL J. HARRIS would make false and misleading statements to his clients and to others and would make statements to his clients and to others that omitted materially important information about his use of client funds, for the purpose of concealing his past misuse of client funds and ensuring his continued ability to receive, commingle, and convert to his own use client funds.
