

---

From: Bridget Kelly <bridgetkelly@ymail.com> on behalf of Bridget Kelly
Sent: Monday, August 19, 2013 5:30 PM
To: Bill Stepien
Subject: Re: NEWS ALERT: Star-Ledger: N.J. Senate sends 'flawed' corporate tax break bill to governor's desk

Love holding a grudge. Thanks.

On Aug 19, 2013, at 5:29 PM, Bill Stepien <Stepien@yahoo.com> wrote:

I say, whatever. Keep in the memory bank

On Aug 19, 2013, at 5:25 PM, Bridget Kelly <bridgetkelly@ymail.com> wrote:

Don't even get me started. He marched in today basically demanding to see the Governor with his intern. He is one of the nerviest members.

Can I call him out on the quote?

On Aug 19, 2013, at 3:09 PM, Bill Stepien <Stepien@yahoo.com> wrote:

Way to put the governor in a box:

"It is loaded with lard that would make some of the folks in Washington proud," said state Sen. Sam Thompson (R-Middlesex), who nevertheless voted to yes to send it to the governor to "see what he does."

Begin forwarded message:

From: "Sarah Dolan"
<sarah.dolan@gov.state.nj.us>
Date: August 19, 2013, 3:08:55 PM EDT
To: "Sarah Dolan" <sarah.dolan@gov.state.nj.us>
Subject: NEWS ALERT: Star-Ledger: N.J.
Senate sends 'flawed' corporate tax break bill to governor's desk

"It is loaded with lard that would make some of the folks in Washington proud," said state Sen. Sam Thompson (R-Middlesex), who nevertheless voted to yes to send it to the governor to "see what he does."