INFORMATION

THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY CHARGES THAT:

1. At all times material to this Information, defendant William R. Miller V was a political consultant in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania area and a resident of Glenside, Pennsylvania.
2. From in or about April 2011 through in or about March 2016, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, defendant

willfully attempted to evade and defeat substantial income taxes due and owing by him to the United States of America for the calendar years 2010 through 2014 by failing to make income tax returns for any of those calendar years, as required by law, to any proper officer of the Internal Revenue Service until March 2016, and by failing to pay to the Internal Revenue Service corresponding income taxes, and by concealing and attempting to conceal from all proper officers of the United States of America his true and correct income through various means, including by committing the following affirmative acts, among others:

(a) by cashing numerous checks issued to him for his political consulting services and then only depositing a portion of this cash into his bank accounts;

(b) after learning of the federal tax investigation, by concealing sources and amounts of his true and correct income by making false and deceptive statements to the accountant who prepared his tax returns for the calendar years 2010 through 2014; and

(c) after learning of the federal tax investigation, by filing and causing to be filed with the Director, Internal Revenue Service Center, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, false and fraudulent U.S. individual income tax returns, Form 1040, for the calendar years 2010 through 2014, in which he concealed sources and amounts of his true and correct income.

In violation of Title 26, United States Code, Section 7201.
