1. At various times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, in the District of New Jersey, and elsewhere, defendants JERVON MORRIS, a/k/a "Sticky" ("MORRIS"); JALIL HOLMES, a/k/a "Broad Day," a/k/a "BD"

("HOLMES"); KEVIN WILLIAMS, a/k/a "KK," a/k/a "Kay Kay" ("KEVIN WILLIAMS"); JAKEEM GIBSON-MADISON, a/k/a "Beanz" ("GIBSON-MADISON"); K'SHAWN JACKSON, a/k/a "Lil Kay" ("JACKSON"); LAKIEF GRAYSON, a/k/a "LaLa," a/k/a "La Greaz" ("GRAYSON"); WILLIE WILLIAMS, a/k/a "Willz" ("WILLIE WILLIAMS"); TERICK ROGERS, a/k/a "Moot" ("ROGERS"); and others, known and unknown, were members and associates of a criminal organization known as "Marion" or "300" (hereinafter the "Marion Gardens Enterprise" or "the Enterprise"). The Marion Gardens Enterprise, including its leadership, members, and associates, constituted an enterprise, as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4)—namely, a group of individuals associated in fact that engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce. The enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members and associates functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise.

History, Rules, and Organization of the Marion Gardens Enterprise

2. The Marion Gardens Enterprise is a criminal street gang comprised primarily of members of the "Brim" and "Sex, Money, Murder" subsets of the Bloods street gang who reside in and around the Marion Gardens Housing Complex located in Jersey City, New Jersey ("Marion Gardens" or the "Marion Projects"). Although associated with the Bloods street gang, members of the Marion Gardens Enterprise represent, first and foremost, the Marion Projects. The Marion Gardens Enterprise is known for drug distribution in and around the area of the Marion Gardens Housing Complex as well as for violence against numerous rival groups within and around Jersey City, New Jersey. They utilize the nickname “300” and a hand sign, which displays their pinky, ring, and middle fingers, with their thumb and pointer finger closed together in a circle.

3. Members and associates of the Marion Gardens Enterprise followed certain practices of the Enterprise, including:

a. visible demonstrations of gang affiliation, such as an identification with the number “57” or “five-seven,” which is a reference to building 57 within the Marion Gardens Housing Complex where members of the Marion Gardens Enterprise congregate;

b. the utilization of social media platforms to proclaim affiliation with, and highlight, the Enterprise by posting gang-related photographs and videos, including those paying homage to deceased members of the Enterprise and taunting rival gang members, as well as to communicate with other members and associates; and

c. the use of slogans and hand gestures, as well as the display of tattoos, signifying membership in the Enterprise.

4. Members and associates of the Marion Gardens Enterprise engaged in, or controlled, drug trafficking and other criminal activities within the Marion Projects. Only those individuals who were members of, or associated with, the Marion Gardens Enterprise were permitted to distribute narcotics within the Marion Projects.

5. Members and associates of the Marion Gardens Enterprise engaged in retaliatory acts of violence with rival gangs, including those that identify as “Wilkinson” and “SaLaf.” Members and associates were expected to commit acts of violence against rival gang members whenever rival gang members were encountered. Failure to do so would result in “discipline” by fellow gang members and a lack of respect within the Enterprise.

6. Members and associates of the Marion Gardens Enterprise paid homage to deceased members of the Enterprise and were expected to retaliate in order to seek retribution for their deceased fellow gang members.

7. At all relevant times, MORRIS, HOLMES, KEVIN WILLIAMS, GIBSON-MADISON, JACKSON, GRAYSON, WILLIE WILLIAMS, and ROGERS operated in and around Hudson County, New Jersey.

Purposes of the Marion Gardens Enterprise

8. The purposes of the Marion Gardens Enterprise included the following:

a. promoting and enhancing the Enterprise and the activities of its members and associates, both in and out of prison, which activities included, but were not limited to, drug trafficking, murder, robbery, and other criminal activities;

b. preserving and protecting the power, territory, reputation, and profits of the Enterprise and of its members and associates, both in and out of prison, through the use of intimidation, violence, threats of violence, assaults, and murder;

c. providing assistance to gang members and associates who were imprisoned after having committed crimes on behalf of the Enterprise;

d. confronting and retaliating against rival gangs through intimidation, threats of violence, and acts of violence; and

e. hindering, obstructing, and preventing law enforcement from identifying participants in the gang's criminal activity, from apprehending the offenders of those crimes, and from successfully prosecuting and punishing those offenders.
