Re: United States v. Enrica Cotellessa-Pitz, S5 10 Cr. 228 (LTS)

Dear Messrs. Rody and Treanor:

This prosecution and the protection against prosecution set forth below have been approved by the Tax Division, Department of Justice.

On the understandings specified below, the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York ("this Office") will accept a guilty plea from Enrica Cotellessa-Pitz (the "Defendant") to a criminal superseding information (the "Information") charging her with the following violations of federal law, between in or about 1998 and on or about December 11, 2008, in connection with her employment at Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities ("BLMIS").

Count One charges the Defendant with conspiracy to (1) obstruct or impede the lawful government functions of the Internal Revenue Service in the ascertainment, assessment, computation and collection of income taxes, (2) falsify books and records of a broker-dealer, (3) falsify books and records of an investment adviser, and (4) make false filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371. Count One carries a maximum sentence of five years' imprisonment, a maximum fine under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3571(d) of the greatest of $250,000, twice the gross pecuniary gain to any person derived from the offense, or twice the gross pecuniary loss to persons other than the Defendant resulting from the offense, a mandatory $100 special assessment, and a maximum term of three years' supervised release.

Count Two charges the Defendant with falsifying books and records of a broker-dealer, in violation of Title 15, United States Code, Sections 78q(a) and 78ff; Title 17, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 240.17a-3; and Title 18, United States Code, Section 2. Count Two carries a maximum sentence of twenty years' imprisonment, a maximum fine under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3571(d) of the greatest of $5 million, twice the gross pecuniary gain to any person derived from the offense, or twice the gross pecuniary loss to persons other than the Defendant resulting from the offense, a mandatory $100 special assessment, and a maximum term of three years' supervised release.

Count Three charges the Defendant with falsifying books and records of an investment adviser, in violation of Title 15, United States Code, Sections 80b-4 and 80b-17; Title 17, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 275.204-2; and Title 18, United States Code, Section 2. Count Three carries a maximum sentence of five years' imprisonment, a maximum fine under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3571(d) of the greatest of $250,000, twice the gross pecuniary gain to any person derived from the offense, or twice the gross pecuniary loss to persons other than the Defendant resulting from the offense, a mandatory $100 special assessment, and a maximum term of three years' supervised release.

Count Four charges the Defendant with making false filings with the SEC, in violation of Title 15, Sections 78q and 78ff, Title 17, Code of Federal Regulations, Sections 240.17a-5, 240.17a-13 and 210.2-01, and Title 18, United States Code, Section 2. Count Four carries a maximum sentence of twenty years' imprisonment, a maximum fine under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3571(d) of the greatest of $5 million or twice the gross pecuniary gain to any person derived from the offense, or twice the gross pecuniary loss to persons other than the Defendant resulting from the offense, a mandatory $100 special assessment, and a maximum term of three years' supervised release.

The total maximum sentence of incarceration on Counts One through Four is 50 years' imprisonment.

It is further understood that the Defendant shall make restitution in an amount to be specified by the Court in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663, 3663A, and 3664. This amount shall be paid according to a plan established by the Court.

The Defendant furthermore admits the forfeiture allegations with respect to Counts One and Two of the Information and agrees to forfeit to the United States, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461, all property, real and personal, that constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to the commission of those offenses, including but not limited to a sum of money equal to $97.3 billion, representing the amount of proceeds obtained as a result of the offenses charged in Counts One and Two of the Information. It is further understood that any forfeiture of the Defendant's assets shall not be treated as satisfaction of any fine, restitution, cost of imprisonment, or any other penalty the Court may impose upon her in addition to forfeiture.

It is understood that the Defendant (a) shall truthfully and completely disclose all information with respect to the activities of herself and others concerning all matters about which this Office inquires of her, which information can be used for any purpose; (b) shall cooperate fully with this Office, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the U.S. Department of Labor, the IRS, and any other law enforcement agency designated by this Office; (c) shall attend all meetings at which this Office requests her presence; (d) shall provide to this Office, upon request, any document, record, or other tangible evidence relating to matters about which this Office or any designated law enforcement agency inquires of her; (e) shall truthfully testify before the grand jury and at any trial and other court proceeding with respect to any matters about which this Office may request her testimony; (f) shall bring to this Office's attention all crimes which she has committed, and all administrative, civil, or criminal proceedings, investigations, or prosecutions in which she has been or is a subject, target, party, or witness; (g) shall commit no further crimes whatsoever, and (h) shall provide notice to this Office prior to discussing the conduct covered by Counts One through Four of the Information with anyone other than this Office, law enforcement agencies designated by the Office, or the Defendant's attorney. Moreover, any assistance the Defendant may provide to federal criminal investigators shall be pursuant to the specific instructions and control of this Office and designated investigators.

If the Defendant fully complies with the understandings specified in this Agreement, she will not be further prosecuted criminally by this Office, and, with respect to tax offenses, the Tax Division, Department of Justice, for any crimes related to her participation in the crimes set forth in the Information, namely, conspiracy as charged in Count One; falsifying books and records of a broker-dealer as charged in Count Two; falsifying books and records of an investment adviser as charged in Count Three; and making false filings with the SEC as charged in Count Four, to the extent that she has disclosed such participation to this Office as of the date of this Agreement. This Agreement does not provide any protection against prosecution for any crimes except as set forth above.

It is understood that this Agreement does not bind any federal, state, or local prosecuting authority other than this Office and, to the extent set forth above, the Tax Division, Department of Justice. This Office will, however, bring the cooperation of the Defendant to the attention of other prosecuting offices, if requested by her.

It is understood that the sentence to be imposed upon the Defendant is within the sole discretion of the Court. This Office cannot, and does not, make any promise or representation as to what sentence the Defendant will receive, and will not recommend any specific sentence to the Court. However, this Office will inform the Probation Department and the Court of (a) this Agreement; (b) the nature and extent of the Defendant's activities with respect to this case and all other activities of the Defendant which this Office deems relevant to sentencing; and (c) the nature and extent of the Defendant's cooperation with this Office. In so doing, this Office may use any information it deems relevant, including information provided by the Defendant both prior to and subsequent to the signing of this Agreement. In addition, if this Office determines that the Defendant has provided substantial assistance in an investigation or prosecution, and if she has fully complied with the understandings specified in this Agreement, this Office will file a motion, pursuant to Section 5K1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines, requesting the Court to sentence the Defendant in light of the factors set forth in Section 5K1.1(a)(1)-(5). It is understood that, even if such a motion is filed, the sentence to be imposed on the Defendant remains within the sole discretion of the Court. Moreover, nothing in this Agreement limits this Office's right to present any facts and make any arguments relevant to sentencing to the Probation Department and the Court, or to take any position on post-sentencing motions. The Defendant hereby consents to such adjournments of her sentence as may be requested by this Office.

It is understood that, should this Office determine that the Defendant has not provided substantial assistance in an investigation or prosecution, or has violated any provision of this Agreement, such a determination will release this Office from any obligation to file a motion pursuant to Section 5K1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines, but will not entitle the Defendant to withdraw her guilty plea once it has been entered.

It is understood that, should this Office determine, subsequent to the filing of a motion pursuant to Section 5K1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines and/or 18 U.S.C. § 3553(e), that the Defendant has violated any provision of this Agreement, this office shall have the right to withdraw such motion.

It is understood that, should the Defendant commit any further crimes or should it be determined that she has given false, incomplete, or misleading testimony or information, or should she otherwise violate any provision of this Agreement, the Defendant shall thereafter be subject to prosecution for any federal criminal violation of which this Office has knowledge, including perjury and obstruction of justice. Any such prosecution that is not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations on the date of the signing of this Agreement may be commenced against the Defendant, notwithstanding the expiration of the statute of limitations between the signing of this Agreement and the commencement of such prosecution. It is the intent of this Agreement to waive all defenses based on the statute of limitations with respect to any prosecution that is not time-barred on the date that this Agreement is signed.

It is understood that in the event that it is determined that the Defendant has committed any further crimes, given false, incomplete, or misleading testimony or information, or otherwise violated any provision of this Agreement, (a) all statements made by the Defendant to this Office or other designated law enforcement agents, and any testimony given by the Defendant before a grand jury or other tribunal, whether prior to or subsequent to the signing of this Agreement, and any leads from such statements or testimony shall be admissible in evidence in any criminal proceeding brought against the Defendant; and (b) the Defendant shall assert no claim under the United States Constitution, any statute, Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, or any other federal rule that such statements or any leads therefrom should be suppressed. It is the intent of this Agreement to waive all rights in the foregoing respects.

The Defendant hereby acknowledges that she has accepted this Agreement and decided to plead guilty because she is in fact guilty. By entering this plea of guilty, the Defendant waives any and all right to withdraw her plea or to attack her conviction, either on direct appeal or collaterally, on the ground that the Government has failed to produce any discovery material, Jencks Act material, exculpatory material pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), other than information establishing the factual innocence of the defendant, and impeachment material pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), that has not already been produced as of the date of the signing of this Agreement.

The Defendant recognizes that, if she is not a citizen of the United States, her guilty plea and conviction make it very likely that her deportation from the United States is presumptively mandatory and that, at a minimum, she is at risk of being deported or suffering other adverse immigration consequences. The Defendant acknowledges that she has discussed the possible immigration consequences (including deportation) of her guilty plea and conviction with defense counsel. The Defendant affirms that she wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that may result from the guilty plea and conviction, even if those consequences include deportation from the United States. It is agreed that the Defendant will have no right to withdraw her guilty plea based on any actual or perceived adverse immigration consequences (including deportation) resulting from the guilty plea and conviction. It is further agreed that the Defendant will not challenge her conviction or sentence on direct appeal, or through litigation under Title 28, United States Code, Section 2255 and/or Section 2241, on the basis of any actual or perceived adverse immigration consequences (including deportation) resulting from her guilty plea and conviction.

This Agreement supersedes any prior understandings, promises, or conditions between this Office, the Tax Division, Department of Justice, and the Defendant. No additional understandings, promises, or conditions have been entered into other than those set forth in this Agreement, and none will be entered into unless in writing and signed by all parties.

Very truly yours,
