At all times relevant to this Indictment,

THE TREN DE ARAGUA ENTERPRISE

1. 2. The Tren de Aragua Enterprise (“TDA” or the “Enterprise”) including its leaders, members, and associates, constituted an “enterprise,” as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact that engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce. TDA constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of TDA.

3. JARWIN VALERO-CALDERON, a/k/a “La Fama,” SAMUEL GONZALEZ CASTRO, a/k/a “Klei,” a/k/a “Kley,” EFERSON MORILLO-GOMEZ, a/k/a “Jefferson,” a/k/a “Efe Trebol,” BRAYAN OLIVEROS-CHERO, SANDRO OLIVEROS-CHERO, and ARMANDO JOSE PEREZ GONZALEZ, a/k/a “Biblia,” the defendants, were members and associates of TDA and participated in unlawful and other activities in furtherance of the conduct of TDA’s affairs.

PURPOSES OF THE TDA ENTERPRISE

Preserving and protecting the power and territory of TDA and its members and associates through acts involving murder, assault, robbery, other acts of violence, and threats of violence, including acts of violence and threats of violence directed at former members and associates of TDA who associated with a splinter organization known as “Anti-Tren.”
 - b. Enriching the members and associates of TDA through, among other things, (i) the unlawful smuggling of individuals, including young women from Venezuela, into Peru and the United States, (ii) the sex trafficking of young women (whom members and associates of TDA often refer to as “multadas”) who had been unlawfully smuggled into Peru and the United States, (iii) the trafficking of controlled substances, including a mixed substance called “tusi” that contains ketamine, and (iv) armed robberies.

c. Keeping victims and potential victims in fear of TDA and its members and associates through threats and acts of violence.

d. Promoting and enhancing TDA and the reputation and activities of its members and associates.

e. Providing assistance to members and associates of TDA who committed crimes for and on behalf of TDA, such as lodgings and interstate transportation for members and associates of TDA to flee prosecution.

f. Protecting TDA and its members and associates from detection and prosecution by law enforcement authorities through acts of intimidation, threats, and violence against potential witnesses to crimes committed by members of TDA.

MEANS AND METHODS OF THE TDA ENTERPRISE

5. Among the means and methods employed by the members and associates in conducting and participating in the conduct of the affairs of TDA were the following:

a. Members and associates of TDA committed and conspired, attempted, and threatened to commit, acts of violence, including acts involving murder and assault, to protect and to expand TDA’s criminal operations, resolve disputes within TDA, to retaliate against rival organizations, including Anti-Tren, and to maintain control over sex trafficking victims.

b. Members and associates of TDA engaged in human smuggling and sex trafficking of young women they referred to as “multadas,” whom TDA transported from Venezuela into Peru and the United States in exchange for debts that the “multadas” would pay back to TDA by engaging in commercial sex work. Members of TDA enforced compliance among “multadas” by, among other things, (i) threatening to kill “multadas” and their families, (ii) assaulting “multadas,” (iii) shooting or killing “multadas,” and (iv) tracking down and kidnapping “multadas” who tried to flee.
