Judge Edwards

Magistrate Judge Perez-Montes

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

Count One

Conspiracy to Commit Visa Fraud

[18 U.S.C. §§ 371, 1546(a)]

At times material to this Indictment:

The Process of Applying for a U-Visa

1. Congress created the U nonimmigrant status ("U-Visa") with the passage of the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act in October 2000. The legislation was intended to strengthen the ability of law enforcement agencies to investigate and prosecute certain crimes while also protecting victims of crimes who are willing to help law enforcement authorities in the investigation or prosecution of the criminal activity.

2. Foreign nationals are eligible for a U-Visa if they (1) were the victim of qualifying criminal activity that occurred in the United States or violated U.S. laws, (2) suffered substantial physical or mental abuse as a result of having been a victim of the criminal activity; (3) possessed information about the criminal activity, (4) were helpful or were likely to be helpful to law enforcement in the investigation or prosecution of the crime, and (5) were admissible to the United States. Qualifying criminal activities included, among other crimes, extortion, false imprisonment, unlawful criminal restraint, and felonious assault. Certain qualifying family members are also eligible for derivative U-Visa status based upon their relationship to the principal filing for the U-Visa.

3. Qualifying crime victims could apply for U-Visa status by submitting a United States Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") Form I-918, Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status; a Form I-918, Supplement B, U Nonimmigrant Status Certification; and evidence to establish each eligibility requirement.

4. The Form I-918 asks applicants if they were a victim of qualifying criminal activity, suffered substantial physical or mental abuse as a result of having been a victim of the criminal activity, and possess information concerning the criminal activity. The Form I-918 further requires applicants to attach a personal narrative statement describing the criminal activity, along with supporting documentation. The Form I-918 further requires applicants to certify, under penalty of perjury, that all the information in their petition and any documents submitted with it are complete, true, and correct.

5. The Form I-918, Supplement B requires the signature of an authorized official of a certifying law enforcement agency confirming that the individual was a victim of a qualifying crime and had been or would be helpful in the investigation or prosecution of any resulting case.

6. Chandrakant Patel was a resident of Oakdale, Louisiana, and owner of G&G Superette, a convenient store in Glenmore, Louisiana, and EZ Shop, a convenient store in Oakdale, Louisiana. Patel also operated a fast-food restaurant franchise in Oakdale, Louisiana. Patel was granted a U-Visa in 2023, based on his alleged status as a victim of armed robbery.

7. Chad Doyle was the Chief of Police for the City of Oakdale, Louisiana Police Department.

8. Michael Slaney was the Marshal of the Ward 5 Marshal's Office in Oakdale, Louisiana.

9. Glynn Dixon was the Chief of Police for the City of Forest Hill, Louisiana Police Department.

10. Tebo Onishea was the Chief of Police for the City of Glenmora, Louisiana Police Department.

11. Beginning no later than on or about December 26, 2015, and continuing until at least July 15, 2025, in the Western District of Louisiana and elsewhere, Chandrakant Patel, Chad Doyle, Michael Slaney, Glynn Dixon, and Tebo Onishea defendants herein, knowingly conspired with each other and others known and unknown to the grand jury (a) to obtain a document prescribed by statute and regulation for entry into and as evidence of authorized stay and employment in the United States, namely, a nonimmigrant U-Visa, which defendants knew to be procured by means of false claims and statements and otherwise procured by fraud and unlawfully obtained, and (b) knowingly make under oath and subscribe as true under penalty of perjury under Title 28, United States Code, Section 1746, a false statement with respect to a material fact in an application, affidavit, and document required by the immigration laws and regulations prescribed thereunder, and which statement defendants then and there knew as false, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1546(a).

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

12. It was part of the conspiracy that Chandrakant Patel, Chad Doyle, Michael Slaney, Glynn Dixon, Tebo Onishea, and others known and unknown to the grand jury, authored, facilitated, produced, and authenticated false police reports in several central Louisiana parishes. Each report listed several victims of purported armed robberies in the central Louisiana area. The co-conspirators produced these false police reports so that the purported victims of the robberies could apply for U-Visas.

13. It was further part of the conspiracy that individuals seeking U-Visas ("Aliens") contacted Chandrakant Patel — or another facilitator who would then contact Chandrakant Patel — to be named as "victims" in police reports alleging that an armed robbery had occurred, so that they could submit applications for U-Visas. Aliens paid Patel thousands of dollars to participate, and in exchange, Patel would ask the co-conspirators, including Doyle, Slaney, Dixon, and Onishea to write a false police report naming the Aliens as victims of alleged armed robberies.

14. The majority of the Aliens were non-Louisiana residents.

15. It was also part of the conspiracy that Doyle, Slaney, Dixon, and Onishea provided certification and attestation of U-Visa I-918B supporting documents as representatives of their respective law enforcement agencies.

16. It was further part of the conspiracy that, in exchange for generating false police reports, Patel paid Doyle, Slaney, Dixon, and Onishea approximately $5,000 United States Dollars (USD) for each Alien placed on a law enforcement incident report.

Patel's payment of $5,000 USD was in exchange for the generation of the report, the placing of an individual Alien in the report, and the subsequent U-Visa I-918B certification required for each Alien to apply for a U-Visa.

17. It was further part of the conspiracy that following the generation of fraudulent incident reports, Aliens submitted a completed Form I-918 to USCIS predicated upon their alleged status as a victim of an armed robbery that never occurred.

18. It was further part of the conspiracy that Patel, Doyle, Slaney, Dixon, Onishea, and others known and unknown to the grand jury concealed, and caused to be concealed, acts taken in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Overt Acts

19. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to affect the object of the conspiracy, the defendants committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Western District of Louisiana, and elsewhere:

a. Counts 2 through 25 are incorporated herein as separate overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy set forth above, all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
