

LAW ENFORCEMENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

TRAINING SEMINAR

The United States Attorney's Office Law Enforcement Coordinating Committee has scheduled its fifteenth Annual LECC Training Seminar to take place Aug. 16 to Aug. 18, 2017 at the Oasis Hotel & Convention Center.

The three-day LECC Training Seminar is available to all law enforcement officers and will cover a wide variety of topics, including 19 hours P.O.S.T. certified training, including mandatory racial profiling training.

At a cost of only $130 the anticipated topics include: Outlaw Motorcycle gangs update, tactical patrolling, courtroom testimony, Office Wellness and invited is Deputy Superintendent Colm Lydon to discuss the Boston Marathon Bombing, among other potential topics.

The LECC Training Seminar registration fee will include two breakfasts, one lunch and one dinner banquet. Hotel rooms are available for $84 per night at the Oasis Hotel. The hotel is located at 2346 N. Glenstone, Springfield, MO 65803. For room reservations call (888) 532-4338 and mention the LECC Training Seminar.

The LECC Training Seminar will begin at 8:30 a.m. on Aug. 16 and conclude at noon on Aug. 18. There is a pre-conference class on Tuesday evening. The registration deadline for the guaranteed hotel rate is July 24. Conference registration should be made early to ensure your spot.

This year we will be hosting an optional event with Springfield Cardinals Baseball Club. On Wednesday Evening, we will again spend an evening with the Cardinals and enjoy all you can eat stadium food in the Red Bird Roost. Make sure you register for this event in advance as we have to have a confirmed number by August 7.
