INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

COUNT ONE
(Attempted Murder of a United States District Judge)

On or about June 23, 2013, in Duval County, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, did with premeditation and malice aforethought, unlawfully attempt to kill Timothy J. Corrigan, a United States District Judge for the Middle District of Florida, an officer and employee of the United States, while United States District Judge Timothy J. Corrigan was engaged in and on account of the performance of his official duties.

At the time of said offense, the defendant, AARON M. RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, which order notified AARON M. RICHARDSON of the potential effect of committing an offense while on release.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1113, 1114, and 3147(1).

COUNT TWO

(Using, Carrying, and Discharging a Firearm During and in Relation to a Crime of Violence and Possessing and Discharging a Firearm in Furtherance of a Crime of Violence)

On or about June 23, 2013, in Duval County, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, knowingly used and carried a firearm, that is, a Savage Arms .30-06 caliber rifle, serial number H783115, and Winchester ammunition, during and in relation to a crime of violence for which he may be prosecuted in a Court of the United States, that is, the attempted murder of a United States District Judge, as charged in Count One of this Indictment, and knowingly possessed that firearm and ammunition in furtherance of that crime of violence, and that firearm was discharged in the course of the commission of the crime.

At the time of said offense, the defendant, AARON M. RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, which order notified AARON M. RICHARDSON of the potential effect of committing an offense while on release.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 924(c) and 3147(1).

COUNT THREE
(Possession of a Firearm and Ammunition by a Convicted Felon)

Between on or about June 20 and June 25, 2013, in Duval County, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, did knowingly possess in and affecting interstate commerce, a firearm, that is, a Savage Arms .30-06 caliber rifle, serial number H783115, and Winchester ammunition, after having previously been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, that is, Attempting to Make an Incendiary Device, in violation of 26 U.S.C. §§ 5822, 5861(f), and 5871, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, in the Jacksonville Division of the United States District Court, Middle District of Florida, on or about March 31, 2011.

At the time of said offense, the defendant, AARON M. RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, which order notified AARON M. RICHARDSON of the potential effect of committing an offense while on release.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 922(g)(1), 924(a)(2), and 3147(1).

COUNT FOUR
(Possession of a Stolen Firearm and Ammunition)

Between on or about June 20 and June 25, 2013, in Duval County, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, did knowingly receive, possess, store, and conceal a stolen firearm, that is, a Savage Arms .30-06 caliber rifle, serial number H783115, and Winchester ammunition, that had been shipped and transported in interstate commerce, knowing and having reasonable cause to believe that the firearm and ammunition were stolen.

At the time of said offense, the defendant, AARON M. RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, which order notified AARON M. RICHARDSON of the potential effect of committing an offense while on release.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 922(j), 924(a)(2), and 3147(1).

COUNTS FIVE THROUGH TEN
(False Statements to the Federal Bureau of Investigation)

Between on or about June 25 and June 26, 2013, at Jacksonville, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, did knowingly and willfully make the false, fictitious and fraudulent material statements and representations set forth in the table below to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in connection with the investigation of the attempted murder of United States District Judge Timothy J. Corrigan, a matter within the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, an agency of the United States, which the defendant then knew to be false, fictitious, and fraudulent.

COUNT	FALSE STATEMENT
FIVE	On Saturday, June 22, 2013, from 4:00 p.m. until the rest of the day on Sunday, June 23, 2013, the defendant was at the defendant's mother's apartment.
SIX	The defendant had no knowledge about the Savage Arms .30-06 caliber rifle, serial number H783115, located in the defendant's mother's apartment.
SEVEN	The room in the defendant's mother's apartment in which the Savage Arms .30-06 caliber rifle, serial number H783115, was located was not the defendant's room.
EIGHT	The defendant did not know someone shot at Judge Corrigan.
NINE	Volusia County authorities had provided the defendant with paperwork showing that his criminal charges were dropped.
TEN	If the defendant's fingerprints or DNA were on the Savage Arms .30-06 caliber rifle, serial number H783115, it was because the defendant touched the rifle in an attempt to get his shoes out of a pile of belongings that law enforcement officers had assembled and placed in a pile during his arrest on June 25, 2013.

At the time of said offenses, the defendant, AARON M.

RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, which order notified

AARON M. RICHARDSON of the potential effect of committing an offense while on release.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1001 and 3147(1).

COUNT ELEVEN
(Theft of a Firearm from a Federally Licensed Firearms Dealer)

Between or about June 20 and June 21, 2013, in Duval County, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, did knowingly steal and unlawfully take and carry away a firearm, that is, a Savage Arms .30-06 caliber rifle, serial number H783115, from the business premises and inventory of a federally licensed firearms dealer, that is, Sports Authority #370, located at 9292 Arlington Expressway, Jacksonville, Florida, which firearm had previously been shipped and transported in interstate commerce.

At the time of said offense, the defendant, AARON M. RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, which order notified AARON M. RICHARDSON of the potential effect of committing an offense while on release.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 922(u), 924(i)(1), and 3147(1).

COUNT TWELVE
(Failure to Appear for a Court Hearing)

On or about June 11, 2013, in Duval County, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, having previously been arraigned in United States District Court on a charge of violating the terms of his supervised release, based upon an underlying offense of Attempting to Make an Incendiary Device, in violation of 26 U.S.C. §§ 5822, 5861(f), and 5871, in that case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, a felony punishable by imprisonment of up to ten years imprisonment, and having been released on bail pursuant to the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Chapter 207, in that case, did knowingly and willfully fail to appear before the Court for an Arraignment on a Superseding Petition regarding alleged violations of his supervised release, as required by the conditions of release.

At the time of said offense, the defendant, AARON M. RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, which order notified AARON M. RICHARDSON of the potential effect of committing an offense while on release.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 3146 and 3147(1).

COUNT THIRTEEN
(Failure to Appear for a Court Hearing)

On or about June 3, 2013, in Duval County, in the Middle District of Florida,

AARON M. RICHARDSON,

the defendant herein, having previously been arraigned in United States District Court on a charge of violating the terms of his supervised release, based upon an underlying offense of Attempting to Make an Incendiary Device, in violation of 26 U.S.C. §§ 5822, 5861(f), and 5871, in that case styled United States of America v. Aaron Marcus Richardson, Case No. 3:08-cr-302-J-32TEM, a felony punishable by imprisonment of up to ten years imprisonment, and having been released on bail pursuant to the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Chapter 207, in that case, did knowingly and willfully fail to appear before the Court for an Arraignment on a Superseding Petition regarding alleged violations of his supervised release, as required by the conditions of release.

At the time of said offense, the defendant, AARON M. RICHARDSON, was on release pursuant to an order dated January 30, 2013, from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division, in that certain case styled United States of America v.
