

NOTICE REGARDING CHAPTER 7 SECTION 341 MEETINGS IN THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

Effective for Cases Filed through May 10, 2020
(or until otherwise notified)

Consistent with U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Utah's General Order 20-002 and pursuant to direction from the Acting United States Trustee for Region 19, all chapter 7 meetings of creditors under 11 U.S.C. § 341 scheduled to occur from March 16, 2020, through May 10, 2020 (or until otherwise notified), will be conducted via telephone.

Section 341 Continued Meetings

Cases that were scheduled to occur on March 16, 2020, through April 12, 2020, have been (or in the process of being) continued to a later date and will be conducted telephonically.

Trustees will advise debtors' counsel and debtors without an attorney of the continued dates of these meetings, which will be rescheduled as telephonic meetings. Debtors, counsel, creditors, and parties in interest should not appear at the originally scheduled meetings of creditors and no examinations of debtors will occur.

Debtors and other parties in interest should contact the trustee assigned to their case if they have any questions about the date and time of their continued section 341 meetings.

Section 341 Meetings After April 12, 2020

All chapter 7 meetings of creditors after April 12, 2020, will be noticed as telephonic meetings. Notice will be sent to the debtor, debtor's counsel, creditors, and parties in interest that will include a document entitled "Instructions for Participants in Telephonic Section 341 Meetings." Please read it carefully.
